4. [redacted] Procured from Senate Foreign Relations Committee transcripts of Mr. Dulles' appearance before the Committee of 26 January 1959 and 18 January 1960 for use by Mr. Howard Stoertz.

6. [redacted] At the of DD/I's office met with Mr. James Kendall, Counsel, Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee, and established a suspense date of 24 July for response to the Committee letter of 29 June concerning subversion of Latin America.

7. [redacted] Met with Mr. Bersie, Assistant to Congressman Gerald R. Ford (R., Mich.) and discussed a question of Communist textbook use in Cuban schools. It appears that what his constituent desires is an English translation of a sample Cuban textbook which would illustrate the teaching of Marxist Doctrine. Such a text is not available. Mr. Bersie indicated that should further information be desired on the subject he would contact appropriate office at Health, Education, and Welfare.
